

Code Camp 2024

Code Camp 2024 invites teams to collaborate in a dynamic coding marathon, where creativity and problem-solving take center stage. Teams will compete for exciting cash prizes, fostering innovation, teamwork, and networking opportunities. Participants will develop a project from scratch, showcase their technical expertise, and pitch their solution to expert judges.

Rule Book:

1. Team Composition:

- Maximum number of members in a team is 3.
- Each team must bring their own laptop(s) for coding and presentations.

2. Entry Fee:

- The entry fee for each team is Rs. 200.

3. Themes and Challenges:

- Teams will have the freedom to choose one theme for their coding project. The themes will be revealed 24 hours before the event.
- Teams will have 35 minutes to prepare their project presentation and code.

4. Code Development and Presentation:

- Code must be written and implemented on the spot during the event. No pre-built projects or existing code can be used.
- Teams are required to create slides for their project presentation within the 35-minute preparation period. These slides must be developed on-site.
- Slides must be submitted to the provided email at the end of the preparation session.

5. Pitching Session:

- Each team will have 7 minutes to pitch their solution. A bell will ring at 5 minutes to indicate that the team should conclude their pitch by the 7-minute mark.
- Business-oriented pitching is mandatory, focusing on the problem-solving and market viability of the project.
- The order of the pitch presentations will be determined through a lucky draw. Teams are not allowed to make changes or work on their project during other teams' presentations.

6. Judging Criteria:

- Slides: 10%
- Pitching effectiveness: 35%

- Creativity (problem identification and problem-solving): 50%
- Teamwork: 5%
- Bonus: Additional points will be awarded if prototypes are created during the event rather than using pre-existing solutions.

7. Violation and Disqualification:

- Organizers reserve the right to disqualify teams that violate any rules or terms set by the event.
